

2006 Here comes 2007

DECEMBER NEWSLETTER

Another year is coming to an end. Please remember to shop with plenty of time to avoid the long lines and hassle. Another advantage of shopping early is avoiding the stress associated with the crowds. Don't forget that now more than ever stores are making it easier to Cyber Shop by offering free shipping and by re-vamping their websites. I found a great web site for those of you that don't know what to get people, it is called gifts.com.

- ➔ E.S.Q. will be closed on December 25th and January 1st.
- ➔ E.S.Q. will be drawing a name for our Winter Contest this 11th of December. The lucky winner will take home a 30GB Video iPod and $200.00 cash. Good Luck to everyone that entered. This week will be your last chance to enter. The name of the winner will be announced in the January Newsletter.
- ➔ E.S.Q. will conduct another contest early next year. Please look out for it.

I will be delivering the 2007 Court Holiday Schedule with our January Newsletter. I hope that you have a great time with your family, and loved ones.

New Year's resolutions are coming up. I think one to remember is to start eating healthy and get in shape. I would like to congratulate an E.S.Q.'s employee for doing so and losing more than 70lbs.

Please remember to call ahead if you have any Specials. We are here to help you. I would like to send a big hello to Nacho from Latham & Watkins, it is always great to speak to him.
